

7 Ways To Improve Boys' Education In Your School

By

Joseph Driessen

An in-depth workshop by one of New Zealand's leading Educators in Boys' Education, covering the key issues and their solutions.

"A Riveting Workshop"

National Association of Assistant and Deputy Principals, New Zealand

- Improving educational achievement for all boys
- Developing teaching skills for boys
- Activating boys' motivation
- Creating a school where boys can excel
- Understanding the 4 groups of boys in your school
- Leadership and effective discipline and guidance
- How to implement boys' programmes in your school

Joseph Driessen

BSc TTC MEdAdmin (Massey University)

- Leading Educator in Boys' Education
- Speaker for National and International Boys' Education Conferences
- Presents Seminars in New Zealand, United Kingdom and Australia
- Engaged by Massey and Waikato Universities for Teacher Professional Development
- Engaged by Ministry of Education for Research Project on Boys' Education
- Past Assistant Principal of a leading New Zealand High School, Wanganui High School
- Past President of his Toastmasters Club
- Appeared on Canterbury Television
- Appeared on New Zealand Television Documentary Programmes.

"This workshop is both thought-provoking, and incredibly practical."

*Karen Jackson, Executive Field Officer
New Zealand Educational Institute Palmerston North*

- 9.00 am - 4.00 pm
- Coffee on arrival
- Morning tea & lunch
- Staff workbook

Quality Venues & Catering

For teachers of junior, primary and secondary boys

www.educationanswers.com for more details